Strengthen The Bladder

MAKE THIS 25c TEST

Drink lots of boiled or distilled water, if irritation causes getting up nights, frequent desire, scanty flow, burning or backache. You know what hardwater does to a teakettle. Drive out excess acids and deposits with buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., made into green tablets called Bukets, the bladder tax. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. In four days, if not pleased, any druggist will refund your 25c.

We Still Want Town Sewerage

The front page editorial in this newspaper of last week, asking for action on the proposed town sewerage project met with the approval of countless citizens who have endorsed our stand, YET THE PROJECT IS JUST WHERE IT WAS A WEEK AGO and we are still spending for ACTION. Mayor McDearmon is out of town this week, in Florida and for this reason we will desist from further editorial comment, until he returns this week end. Time for action now is short and we hope to see the town 100 per cent for the challenge of PROGRESS.

A Town With No Unemployment Ills

Between 6:30 and 8 o'clock most any cold morning there is a steady stream of men, white and colored, trekking off to work here in Appomattox. Many nights you can lie in bed and hear the drone of machinery, the sweet music of wheels turning and saws buzzing, as overtime piles up.

What's does it all mean?

It means, gentle readers that Appomattox has no UNEMPLOYMENT and local business and industry is thundering along in HIGH GEAR.

THANKS to the New Deal.

We don't know about the rest of America, All we know is what we read in the papers. But as for Appomattox, if anything we have a scarcity of labor.

It is claimed that a $25,000 project for municipal sewerage can't be started here yet on account of a LABOR SHORTAGE.

And relief labor has to be imported here from other counties to carry on projects already under way.

If that doesn't bury Old Man Depression, we give up.

And, local industry has taken on additional employees. There is hardly a business here that is not employing more people today that it did when the depression started. In some cases wages are still low, but at any rate he jobless have been given work.

Of course, most of the slack has been taken up by the relief administration. And so completely has it been taken up, that dozens and dozens have been brought in from elsewhere to fill out the relief projects.

Just take a walk up the street any evening. You'll see dozens of new faces, brought here by the New Deal. And right welcome they are too, for they are hasless, all seriously tackling the duties of their jobs, and adding to the life of the town. They are engineers, foremen, army officers and CCC boys; soil erosion men, terracing men, wood cutters and tree choppers, ditch diggers, fence builders, map drawers, report makers and white collar workers all hustling about, helping to give the Depression the Horse Laugh.

So Appomattox Marches on. If you are willing to work there's a job for you. And this is only the beginning. If the town sewerage project goes through, there will be work for forty more. And there will be the biggest job creator of all when work starts on the national park at the Surrender Grounds. And on top of it all put the fact that our farmers have two better than average tobacco years under their belts.

Two Jailed For Store Break

Faced with a mountain of evidence, two local youths are in the county jail here on warrants for housebreaking at night. The boys are W. T. Barger Jr., 22 and Kermit Godsey, 20.

They were arrested at 8:15 Wednesday morning, five hours after the (Appomattox Hardware Co. here was entered. They are charged with the robbery.

During the past several months the following local stores have been entered at night: Moses Motor Co. and Pulliam and Martin Motor Co.; Inge's Novelty Shoppe and J. D. Morris and the Hardware Co.

The usual procedure was to wait for a train to pass between 2 and 4 A. M. and knock out a glass as the train's noise drowned sounds of crashing glass. Such a procedure was followed in this weeks robbery but Sonny Harwood was on guard in the Hardware store and shot through a door to frighten off the robbers while they were coming down a stairway. They fled before he got sight of them. However 2 caps were found in the flight, and it was this evidence that lead to the double arrest, Bargers cap is said to have been identified at his home. There is an evidence to link the pair with the other robberies, however. Sheriff McClenny had to weild a blackjack on Barger before getting him in jail.
